ETHICS

UCR Palm Desert and the Center for Ideas and Society present

Lecture series 2015: The Things Money Can’t Buy

Are you surrounded by morons? Does the world seem to you to be full of boring idiots? If so, you might be a jerk!

In this talk, Eric Schwitzgebel, professor of philosophy at UCR, offers "A Theory of Jerks," a general theory of the nature of jerkitude. Schwitzgebel will also talk about their opposite -- sweethearts.

"The Things Money Can't Buy" is the theme for this year's Center for Ideas and Society lecture series. Join us as we explore democracy, immortality, longevity and ethics -- rich and fascinating topics that illuminate the ways in which people create and explore a distinctly human life. Please RSVP at palmdesert.ucr.edu/programs/CIS.html
