Mellon Advancing Intercultural Studies Conference, 2016

May 6th, 9:30am-7:00pm
May 7th, 8:45am-4:30pm

Culver Center of the Arts, 3824 Main Street, Riverside, CA, 92501

A conference on the benefits of and issues surrounding identities and practices formed in the multi-ethnic, multicultural, and transnational spaces of UCR and Southern California.

Keynote Speakers:

John L. Jackson, Jr. University of Pennsylvania
Gaye Johnson, University of California, Los Angeles

UCR Participants:

Adalberto Aguirre Jr (Sociology)
V.P. Franklin (History) - Emeritus
Yolanda Moses (Anthropology)
Ashon Crawley (Ethnic Studies)
Jennifer Hughes (History)
Amanda Lucia (Religious Studies)
Matthew King (Religious Studies)
Megan Asaka (History)
Erica Edwards (English)
Mariam Lam (Comparative Literature)
Karthick Ramakrishnan (Political Science)
Erith Jaffe-Berg (Theater; Peace & Conflict)
Juliette Levy (History)
Susan Ossman (Anthropology; Global Studies)
Jeffrey Sacks (Comparative Literature)

Funding provided by a grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.
Sponsored by the UCR Center for Ideas and Society.

Join the conversation!
#aisUCR

RSVP: to cisevents@ucr.edu