

UCR CIS | Faculty Funding Application

NOTES:

-Have your abstract, supporting documentation and budget ready before you begin. You cannot save and return to this form.

--Refer to the funding call for eligibility, deadlines, required documents and other important details. (See our Services/Funding page at ideasandsociety.ucr.edu)

Questions?

Email us at CIS@ucr.edu or call 951-827-1556.

Your Name *

First

Last

Email *

Select one: I am a... *

- Assistant Professor
- Associate Professor
- Professor
- LSOE/Professor of Teaching
- Lecturer

If applicable, list any co-PIs and their email contact information.

Your home department *

Select one: I am applying for... *

- Humanities Interdisciplinary Project (HIP) Award
- CIS Conference Award
- (re)Draft Workshop Award

If Other, explain here.

Title of proposed research or project. *

Project abstract (limit 300 words).

Abstract can be cut and pasted into the field below. *

Maximum Allowed: 300 words. Currently Used: 0 words.

Proposed location of project work or events: *

Provide information on additional funding, cosponsorships, or other support for this project. Indicate if funding is pending or committed. *

Documentation

Not all documents are required. Check the Call for Proposal to determine what documentation is needed to support your application.

Proposal Narrative (1000 words or less)

No file chosen

CV (2 page limit)

If multiple CVs are submitted, combine into one file before uploading. Lists of proposed participants can be included in CV file.

No file chosen

Project budget and justification should be combined and attached as Excel or PDF files. Budget templates are available on our website Funding page.

No file chosen

Other/Miscellaneous

No file chosen